FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER 2015

Dear Parents and Patrons

The month of November promises to be as bright and luminous as the festival of lights. DPS Bangalore north warmly welcomed the students from Kopernikus Nikolaus Gymnasium, Weissenhorn, Germany, and the partner school in the German exchange program. Learning beyond the classroom, as the world melts down its international borders to blend as one big family, is the main aim of such exchange programs that DPS Bangalore North undertakes.

November, the penultimate month of the year was ushered in with the focus reverting to studies. The long holidays of Dussehra and Diwali were soon forgotten and children with their amazing adaptability, changed gears quickly and were back to classes, books and exams.

One of the more important objectives of the School's curriculum is the desire to involve children in a slew of activities that are contemporary in nature. The faculty members painstakingly plan and create activities that add immense value to classroom instructions. This ensures that they are provided the finest and a well-balanced education.

NASA Expedition:

Students of class V were fortunate to get a wonderful opportunity to visit the United States Space Centre at NASA. The objective of the trip was to give a first-hand view of the amazing work being carried out in the field of space exploration at the Kennedy Space Centre, Orlando, Florida. Presentations on Astronautics, Satellites and the future of space travel were made to the students who were truly awe-inspired. The children also visited Astronaut Hall of Fame adjoining this facility. Here they had a world of an opportunity to get a panoramic view of Space applications in daily lives. They also participated in a little project on safe landing of objects and displayed immense potential by making an aerodynamic model of a rocket. Needless to mention, they made us proud by winning an excellence certificate. The picture below bears testimony to this.

Whilst on this wonderful trip they also had the opportunity of visiting important locations of East coast of America including New York, New Jersey, Washington DC, Virginia and Orlando to experience and learn American culture. The excitement of students on posing in front of the White House is quite evident from the photograph:

The session was earmarked by an animated discussion on various issues. It generated tremendous enthusiasm in our budding authors! We sincerely hope that DPS will be successful in moulding at least a few of them into authors of eminence!!!!

Pictures of the interaction truly capture the enthusiasm it generated.

Thanks Giving Day:-

A special assembly on Thanks Giving was held on 18th November to express gratitude for all the wonderful things we are bestowed with. The occasion was also utilized to draw attention of the students to the huge economic disparity that exists in society and the need to be sensitive to the poor and needy.

The assembly commenced with a short prayer and a beautiful thought for the day, both of which were appropriately chosen for the occasion. This was followed by the choir group rendering a melodious song, expressing their deepest gratitude to God for all the good things of life. Praagna, Ashrita and Aditi of Class IV – G enlightened the gathering with a brief history of Thanks Giving and the way it is presently celebrated in the United States. The chief guest for the occasion was Ms. Sarah, who was visiting India from the United States. She willingly answered the barrage of questions posed by the over enthusiastic students.

Overall, the month of November was a busy but nevertheless an exciting month. The Habba fever is building up and the excitement and enthusiasm of staff and students alike is reaching amazing proportions.

The School is eagerly awaiting the month of December for the arrival of the Greatest Carnival of Bangalore- DPS Habba!

We welcome each and every one to be a part of this enjoyable occasion!!
