GOOD HEALTH, LOVE AND OPPORTUNITIES AND OF COURSE PEACE
LET THIS PREVAIL OVER THE WORLD “

Wishing all my students, parents, teachers and patrons a joyous and blessed New Year.

A year full of new hopes, resolutions and aspirations, for my students I wish success and achievement of everything that they truly deserve. The month of December was truly festive and exciting as DPS Bangalore North celebrated HABBA 2015, the theme for which was “INCREDIBLE- INDIA”. Preparations for this mega event had started months prior. December saw students and teachers working full swing, giving finishing touches to the props and paintings. The three day Habba showcased Indian culture and tradition in the backdrop of current globalisation. There were four pavilions that depicted the four corners of our mighty country, each corner showcasing their traditional culture in terms of food, clothing, festivals etc. The Habba also aimed at promoting the cause of sustainable development usage by showing various techniques of conservation. It was a conscious effort to promote a clean and green environment. It also sought to sensitise children to accept and embrace diversities and differences. The Habba was truly a crossroad of cultural experiences.

As we embark upon this New Year, let us all reiterate and renew our promises of making our hearts a little more compassionate to embrace all the diversities around us, so that we can be fittingly called a Global Nation. I take this opportunity to wish my 12th and 10th graders all the very best for their upcoming Board examinations. God bless you all!

With Best Wishes and Prayers,
Manju Balasubramanyam.
